

Danielle Deadwyler has been performing for the stage in Atlanta since childhood. Most recently she was an ensemble cast member in Ikam's El Hajj production. In addition, Danielle has been seen re-energizing African American neighborhoods in Atlanta through community theatre projects such as Sweet and Sour Dill and Redemption's Road. She has studied dance and theatre with Total/Dancical Productions, Gary Harrison Studios and others.